

fRI Research
Informing Land & Resource Management

INTRODUCTION TO THE CANADIAN AQUATIC BIOMONITORING NETWORK

ONLINE WORKSHOP

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2021, 9 AM – 12 PM

Agenda

| | | |
|-------|---|--|
| 9:00 | Welcome | Terri McHugh and Erin Humeny , fRI Research |
| 9:05 | Introduction to CABIN | Emily McIvor , Environment and Climate Change Canada |
| 9:45 | CABIN model development and use in the Mountain National Parks | Shelley Humphries , Parks Canada |
| 10:20 | Monitoring with the CABIN Wadeable Streams Protocol in the Oil Sands Regions of Alberta | Allison Ritcey , Environment and Climate Change Canada Justin Hanisch , Alberta Environment and Parks |
| 11:00 | Break | |
| 11:05 | Application of CABIN for bioassessment in the forest industry in BC | Shauna Bennett , Limnotek Research and Development Inc. |
| 11:30 | Community-based biomonitoring on Alberta's Eastern Slopes | Sofie Forsstrom , Oldman Watershed Council |
| 11:55 | Thank you and wrap up | Erin Humeny |

fRI Research

