

AGENDA

Harlequin Duck Workshop June 25, 2014

Exploring a Common Interest

Hinton Training Centre, Room 214

- 8:30 am Welcome - Bill Tinge, General Manager, Foothills Research Institute
- 8:40 am Introduction - Beth MacCallum, Harlequin Duck Workshop Coordinator
- 8:50 am Harlequin Duck Status, Molt Patterns, Connectivity, and More
Sean Boyd, Environment Canada, Delta, BC
- 9:40 am Alberta Harlequin Duck Conservation Management Plan
Lisa Wilkinson, Alberta Environment, Sustainable Resource Development, Edson
- 10:00 to 10:20 AM BREAK
- 10:20 pm What is the Status of Harlequin Ducks in Alberta's Provincial Protected Areas?
Drajs Vujnovic, Alberta Tourism, Parks and Recreation, Edmonton
- 10:40 pm Harlequin Duck Ecology in Jasper National Park, Update
John Wilmshurst, Jasper National Park, Jasper
- 11:00 pm Cheviot Harlequin Duck Program
Beth MacCallum, Bighorn Wildlife Technologies Ltd., Hinton
- 11:20 pm Harlequin Duck Monitoring Results (1995-2014) and Mitigations In Banff
National Park
Shelley Humphries, Banff, Yoho and Kootenay National Parks, Field, BC
- 11:40 pm Harlequin Duck Research in Glacier National Park, Montana
Cyndi Smith, Waterton Lakes National Park, Waterton
- 12:00 to 1:15 PM LUNCH
- 1:15 pm World Cafe: process to facilitate dialogue in small groups. Specific questions will be discussed focussing on what is known about harlequin ducks, what are the research gaps, and how to address them.
- 2:15 to 2:30 PM BREAK
- 2:30 pm Group Discussion
- 3:30 pm Wrap up