

Natural Disturbance Program Large Woody Debris "Talk 'n Tour"

September 20 - 21, 2010
Lecture Room 141 Hinton Training Centre
Hinton, Alberta

AGENDA Monday September 20th, 2010

Time	Item	Speaker
1:00 pm	Welcome & Introductions	Tom Archibald, FRI
1:10 pm	Introduction and Background on the NDP Riparian Research	Dr. David Andison, FRI ND Program
1:40 pm	Introduction to Large Woody Debris (LWD) Project	Dr. Lori Daniels, UBC, Geography
2:10 pm	Riparian Forest Dynamics & wood decay in headwater streams	Dr. Lori Daniels, UBC, Geography
2:40 pm	Break	All
3:00 pm	LWD Transport and Impacts on Stream Geomorphology	Amy Nicoll, UBC, Geography
3:20 pm	Comparison of in-stream and upland tree mortality and wood dynamics	Dr. Lori Daniels, UBC Geography
3:40 pm	Upland coarse wood dynamics and implications for wildlife	Dr. Lori Daniels, UBC Geography

Tuesday September 21st, 2010

8:00 am – 4:30 pm All- day field tour to visit some of our LWD field research sites

- Snacks and bag lunches provided
- Please let us know if you are able to bring your vehicle on the tour

A block of rooms has been set aside at the Holiday Inn, Hinton, AB for September 20th. Please call them at 1-780-865-3321

There will be a limit of 25 people on the tour, awarded on a first come, first serve basis.

To register for the tour, please contact Fran Hanington at the Foothills Research Institute 780-865-8330 or email phanington@foothillsri.ca